You are invited to a public community forum to discuss justice, equity, race and systemic issues.

This forum is a gathering of community members and community leaders so that we can start a dialog and find ways to work together to achieve positive change in our community and outside of it too.

Our goal is for us to listen to each other and the stories and experiences we bring to the table and learn.

This does not have to be a one and done forum. The hope is it can help lead to new ideas, collaborations, policies and positive change.

This forum merely represents a start to the conversation that is in great need of being done all over the nation.

Hope you can join us on Zoom.

Sincerely,
Mark Pietrowski Jr.
DeKalb County Board Chairman
