

Applications open for fall DeKalb County Community Foundation grants

4:42 pm

SYCAMORE – Applications for fall 2020 Community Needs Grants and Farny R. Wurlitzer Foundation Fund grants are now available through the DeKalb County Community Foundation.

Nonprofits and charitable organizations are encouraged to apply. Application deadline is Sept. 1, for both programs. For information or to apply online at dekalbccf.org/grantprograms.

Community Needs Grants support the charitable needs and efforts of local nonprofit and community organizations throughout DeKalb County.

Funding for this program is possible through donor generosity to community impact funds and the power of endowment.

Farny R. Wurlitzer Foundation Fund Grants support music education for nonprofit and community organizations throughout DeKalb County and the greater Chicago area. Funding for this program is possible through a donor-advised fund established by the Farny R. Wurlitzer Foundation in 2012.

Applicants requesting $25,000 or more must contact the Community Foundation before Aug. 1 to take part in additional requirements.

For application questions on either grant program or to learn more about grantmaking opportunities, contact Grants Director Tiffany McQueen Lewis at 815-748-5383 or tiffany@dekalbccf.org.

Copyright © 2020 The MidWeek. All rights reserved.
