
New & Improved Website for Economic & Workforce Development

ComEd's Economic & Workforce Development Website: www.comed.com/econdev
Illinois' Advantage Highlights strong energy assets, broader State strengths via Intersect Illinois, workforce development programs, and ComEd's commitment to supplier diversity. Illinois' Strong Energy Assets Summarizes and provides additional resources on low and stable prices, industry leading reliability, energy efficiency programs, solar energy and more!	Key Industries References to major industry developments and recent news on projects to inform potential prospects and raise awareness around trends within northern Illinois. This section references data centers, distribution & logistics, indoor agriculture, manufacturing & food processing, and transportation.	Sites Supplies site specific resources, both through Intersect Illinois' property listings, and additional contact information for major power users. Please keep in mind that ComEd has a list of major power potential sites – if you have a site you'd like us to include in our materials, please send it to us.	Partners Provides contact information and reference maps to our state-wide, regional and local economic development partners for easy access. Please link back to us on your website using www.comed.com/econdev